

DAINTIFY

Meaning: Daintify (verb): To make something more delicate, refined, or aesthetically pleasing.

1. She decided to daintify her garden with delicate flowers and intricate decorations.
2. The artist aimed to daintify the harsh lines of her painting with softer, more fluid strokes.
3. To daintify the meal, she added a sprinkle of edible flowers and a touch of gourmet sauce.
4. He wore a tailored suit that seemed to daintify his imposing stature, giving him an air of elegance.
5. The designer's latest collection seeks to daintify everyday wear with lace trims and pastel colors.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/daintify>