

DAKOIT

Meaning: Dakoit: a member of a gang of armed robbers in India and neighboring countries, known for committing violent crimes such as robbery and home invasions.

1. The police launched a massive manhunt after a dakoit robbed the bank in broad daylight.
2. Local residents were terrified when a group of dakoits raided several homes in the countryside.
3. The dakoit was finally captured after weeks of evading authorities in the dense jungle.
4. During the investigation, it became clear that the dakoit had an extensive network of accomplices.
5. In the heart of the city, dakoits have been known to carry out audacious heists under the cover of night.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/dakoit>