

DALLY

Meaning: To dally means to waste time or be slow in doing something, often by engaging in trivial activities.

1. She tended to dally in the mornings, making her late for work.
2. Instead of focusing on his studies, he would dally with his friends after school.
3. The cat would dally around the garden, chasing butterflies and enjoying the sun.
4. They decided not to dally at the coffee shop and headed straight to the meeting.
5. It's best not to dally when making important decisions that could affect your future.
6. She decided to dally in the garden, enjoying the vibrant colors of the flowers.
7. Don't dally too long at the café; we have a meeting to get to.
8. The children loved to dally at the playground after school, reluctant to head home.
9. He would often dally with his guitar, strumming tunes while lost in thought.
10. Instead of studying for his exams, he chose to dally away the afternoon playing video games.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/dally>