

DALTONISM

Meaning: Daltonism is a type of color blindness characterized by difficulty in distinguishing between red and green colors.

1. Daltonism is a form of color blindness that affects the perception of red and green hues.
2. Individuals with daltonism may struggle to distinguish between colors, impacting daily activities.
3. The term daltonism is named after John Dalton, who was one of the first to study color blindness.
4. Awareness of daltonism can help create more inclusive environments for those affected.
5. Assistive technologies are being developed to aid individuals with daltonism in recognizing colors accurately.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/daltonism>