

DAMPER

Meaning: A damper is something that has a depressing or inhibiting effect on a situation or mood.

1. The unexpected rain put a damper on our plans for a picnic in the park.
2. His constant complaints were a real damper on the team's enthusiasm during the project.
3. She added a damper to the fireplace to control the draft and improve the efficiency of the fire.
4. The news of the job cuts served as a damper on the otherwise celebratory atmosphere in the office.
5. Installing a damper in the ventilation system helped to regulate the temperature more effectively.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/damper>