

DAMPISH

Meaning: DAMPISH: slightly damp or moist, often resulting in a cool or musty sensation.

1. The air was dampish after the rain, leaving a noticeable chill in the evening breeze.
2. She wrinkled her nose at the dampish smell of the old basement.
3. His clothes felt dampish after the unexpected downpour while he was out for a walk.
4. The dampish ground made it difficult to find a dry spot to sit during the picnic.
5. Even in summer, the coastal area often had a dampish quality that surprised visitors.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/dampish>