

DAMPNE

Meaning: DAMPNE (adjective): slightly wet or moist, often in a way that affects comfort or ease of movement.

1. The constant rain left the ground dampne, making it difficult to walk without slipping.
2. After the storm passed, the air felt dampne and heavy, a reminder of the recent downpour.
3. She noticed the dampne smell of earth as she walked through the foggy forest.
4. The dampne conditions in the basement led to the growth of mold on the walls.
5. He preferred to run in the early morning when the grass was still dampne with dew.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/dampne>