

DAMPNESS

Meaning: Dampness refers to the state of being slightly wet or moist, particularly in the air or on surfaces.

1. The dampness in the air made it difficult to dry the freshly washed clothes.
2. She could feel the dampness of the ground beneath her feet after the heavy rain.
3. The old basement had an unpleasant smell due to the persistent dampness that lingered.
4. His asthma worsened in the dampness of the coastal climate.
5. They discovered a leak in the roof that was causing dampness on the walls.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/dampness>