

DAMPY

Meaning: DAMPY: characterized by a noticeable presence of moisture or humidity, often resulting in a wet or clammy sensation.

1. The old basement felt dampy, with moisture seeping through the cracked walls.
2. After the heavy rain, the air was thick and dampy, making everything feel heavier.
3. She wrinkled her nose at the dampy smell of the forgotten laundry in the corner.
4. His shoes squelched on the dampy grass, leaving muddy footprints behind.
5. The dampy atmosphere in the cave made it a perfect habitat for moss and fungi.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/dampy>