

DANDER

Meaning: Dander refers to a state of irritation or anger, as well as tiny flakes of skin shed by animals, particularly cats and dogs, that can cause allergic reactions.

1. He always gets in a dander whenever someone criticizes his work.
2. The cat's dander was so severe that it triggered my allergies.
3. She was in a dander after her team lost the championship game.
4. The old house was filled with dust and pet dander, making it hard to breathe.
5. His constant dander about the project deadlines created a tense atmosphere.
6. His allergies flared up after spending time in the house where the cat's dander lingered.
7. The teacher warned the students to be cautious of dander from pets when they visited her home.
8. She vacuumed the carpets regularly to reduce the amount of dander in the air.
9. People with sensitive skin may react to dander from certain animals, causing irritation.
10. The veterinarian advised cleaning the pet bedding often to minimize dander buildup.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/dander>