

DANDIFIED

Meaning: DANDIFIED: dressed in an ostentatiously stylish or elegant manner, often with an emphasis on sophistication and flair.

1. He arrived at the gala in a dandified suit, drawing the attention of everyone in the room.
2. The dandified gentleman strolled through the park, his cane and top hat adding to his flamboyant style.
3. Critics remarked on the dandified appearance of the main character in the film, overshadowing the plot itself.
4. With his dandified attire and ostentatious demeanor, he seemed more like a peacock than a businessman.
5. She admired his dandified taste in fashion, always wearing the latest trends with an air of confidence.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/dandified>