

DAPPLE

Meaning: DAPPLE (noun): A patch or spot of light or color, often characterized by a mottled or speckled appearance.

1. The sunlight filtered through the leaves, creating a beautiful dapple of light on the forest floor.
2. Her dress was adorned with a dapple pattern that reminded everyone of a starry night.
3. The horse's coat was dapple gray, a striking color that made him stand out among the others.
4. As the clouds moved, the shadows cast a dapple effect across the landscape, adding depth to the scene.
5. They walked along the path, enjoying the dapple of sunlight that danced on the ground.
6. The sunlight filtered through the leaves, creating a dapple of light on the forest floor.
7. Her dress was patterned with a dapple of bright colors that caught everyone's attention.
8. As the horse trotted through the field, its coat shimmered with a dapple of white and brown.
9. The artist painted a serene landscape, capturing the dapple of shadows cast by the clouds.
10. Children played in the park, their laughter echoing in the dapple of sunshine and shade.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/dapple>