

DARKEN

Meaning: To darken means to make or become less bright or to reduce light, often resulting in a deeper or more intense appearance.

1. The storm clouds began to darken the sky, signaling the arrival of heavy rain.
2. As the sun set, the colors of the landscape seemed to darken into richer shades.
3. Her mood began to darken as she received the disappointing news from her friend.
4. The artist used darker shades to darken the corners of the painting, adding depth and mystery.
5. With each passing hour, the room seemed to darken, making it harder to see the pages of the book.
6. The storm clouds began to darken the sky, signaling an impending downpour.
7. As the sun set, the room started to darken, casting long shadows across the floor.
8. Her mood would often darken unexpectedly, reflecting the weight of her unspoken worries.
9. The artist chose to darken the background to make the vibrant colors of the flowers stand out.
10. With each passing moment, the atmosphere seemed to darken, heightening the sense of mystery.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/darken>