

DARN

Meaning: "Darn" is an informal expression used to convey mild annoyance or emphasis, often serving as a euphemism for a stronger expletive.

1. I can't believe I lost my keys again; this is just darn frustrating.
2. She let out a darn loud scream when she saw the spider on the wall.
3. He said it was a darn good movie, and I couldn't agree more.
4. After working all day, I just want to relax and enjoy a darn good book.
5. That darn cat always knocks over my plants when I'm not looking.
6. I can't believe I lost my keys again, darn it!
7. She was so close to winning the race, but darn it, she tripped at the finish line.
8. Darn, I forgot to bring my textbook to class today.
9. He said he would help me with the project, but darn, he never showed up.
10. It's been a long week, and I just feel like saying, darn, I need a break.
11. I can't believe I forgot my keys again; darn it!
12. She said it was a darn good movie and that I should watch it.
13. After losing the match, he muttered a quiet, "Darn."
14. They were all excited for the picnic, but then it started to rain, darn it.
15. I stepped in a puddle and ruined my new shoes; darn!

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/darn>