

DARR

Meaning: Darr (noun): a state of disarray or unsettling disturbance, often characterized by chaos or an eerie atmosphere.

1. The storm left the town in a state of darr, with debris scattered everywhere.
2. She felt a chill of darr as she entered the abandoned house, the air thick with silence.
3. His expression was one of darr when he realized he had forgotten the important meeting.
4. The unexpected news brought a sense of darr to the usually lively gathering.
5. As the final moments of the game ticked away, a palpable darr filled the stadium.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/darr>