

DASHING

Meaning: DASHING: adjective describing someone or something that is stylishly attractive or impressive, often conveying a sense of confidence and energy.

1. He arrived at the gala in a dashing tuxedo that caught everyone's attention.
2. The young athlete's dashing speed on the track earned him a scholarship to a prestigious university.
3. With his dashing smile and charming demeanor, he won her heart almost instantly.
4. The hero in the movie was portrayed as a dashing figure, always ready to save the day.
5. She wore a dashing red dress that made her stand out at the party.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/dashing>