

DAUB

Meaning: DAUB (verb): To apply or spread a substance, such as paint or clay, in a rough or careless manner.

1. The artist began to daub paint across the canvas, creating a vibrant landscape.
2. She used her fingers to daub the wet clay, shaping it into a delicate figure.
3. The children were allowed to daub their hands in colorful paints for the art project.
4. He noticed the old wall was daubed with graffiti that told stories of the neighborhood.
5. In a hurry, he managed to daub some sunscreen on his face before heading to the beach.
6. She used her fingers to daub colorful paint onto the canvas.
7. The artist decided to daub a thin layer of white over the dark colors for contrast.
8. As the children played, they began to daub mud on each other, creating a messy scene.
9. He watched the rain daub the windows, creating a beautiful pattern against the glass.
10. The chef would daub a bit of sauce on the plate to enhance the presentation of the dish.
11. The artist decided to daub vibrant colors onto the canvas, creating a striking abstract work.
12. After the storm, the children daubed mud on each other's faces, laughing at their messy appearance.
13. He took a brush and began to daub the old fence with fresh paint, hoping to revive its neglected look.
14. The muralist skillfully daubed the wall with layers of paint, bringing the scene to life.
15. In her excitement, she accidentally daubed chocolate frosting all over the table.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/daub>