

DAUGHTER-IN-LAW

Meaning: Daughter-in-law: the wife of one's child.

1. My daughter-in-law is an incredible cook who always prepares delicious meals for the family gatherings.
2. I have always admired my daughter-in-law for her dedication to her career and her family.
3. The moment my son introduced his new girlfriend, I knew she would make a wonderful daughter-in-law.
4. It's important to me that my daughter-in-law feels welcomed and appreciated in our family.
5. During the holidays, my daughter-in-law brings a special joy to our celebrations with her warm spirit.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/daughter-in-law>