

DAUNT

Meaning: To daunt means to discourage or intimidate someone, often by instilling fear or apprehension.

1. The daunting task of climbing the mountain filled her with both excitement and fear.
2. Despite the challenges ahead, he refused to let the possibility of failure daunt his determination.
3. She approached the presentation with confidence, refusing to be daunted by the size of the audience.
4. The complexity of the project was enough to daunt even the most experienced team members.
5. His ability to remain calm under pressure helped to daunt any hesitation in his colleagues.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/daunt>