

DAUNTER

Meaning: DAUNTER (noun): Something that causes fear, intimidation, or discouragement, often due to its challenging nature.

1. The daunting task of climbing the mountain left many feeling disheartened.
2. She found the intricate dance routine more of a daunter than she had anticipated.
3. Despite the challenges, he refused to let anything be a daunter on his journey to success.
4. The daunter of public speaking made her dread the upcoming presentation.
5. Facing his fears was a daunter he was determined to overcome.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/daunter>