

DAUW

Meaning: Dauw (noun): moisture condensed from the air, forming tiny droplets on surfaces, especially in the early morning.

1. The early morning dew clung to the grass, sparkling like tiny diamonds in the sunlight.
2. As the sun rose higher, the dew began to evaporate, leaving the garden refreshed and glistening.
3. She loved walking barefoot on the dew-covered lawn, feeling the coolness of the grass beneath her feet.
4. The delicate dew drops on the petals of the flowers added a touch of magic to the serene landscape.
5. After a night of rain, the world woke up to a shimmering blanket of dew that transformed the ordinary into the extraordinary.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/dauw>