

DAVENPORT

Meaning: Davenport (noun): A large, upholstered sofa or couch, often with a formal design, used for seating in living rooms.

1. The elegant davenport in the living room became the centerpiece of our family gatherings.
2. After a long day, I sank into the plush davenport, grateful for its comfort.
3. She decided to restore the vintage davenport, bringing new life to the old furniture.
4. The davenport was adorned with intricate carvings, showcasing the craftsmanship of its maker.
5. During the renovation, they found an old letter hidden beneath the cushions of the davenport.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/davenport>