

DAVIT

Meaning: A davit is a pivoted arm or beam used on a ship to lower and raise boats or other heavy objects.

1. The crew carefully secured the lifeboat to the davit before the drill began.
2. As the ship rolled in the rough seas, the davit creaked under the weight of the hanging lifeboat.
3. He learned how to operate the davit during his training for the maritime safety course.
4. The maintenance team inspected the davit to ensure it was functioning properly before the voyage.
5. During the storm, the captain ordered the davit to be lowered to prepare for an emergency evacuation.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/davit>