

DAWDLE

Meaning: Dawdle: to waste time or move slowly, often resulting in delays.

1. She tends to dawdle in the mornings, making us late for school.
2. If you dawdle too much, you'll miss the bus and be stranded.
3. I can't believe you would dawdle when there's so much work to do.
4. Instead of dawdling, focus on completing your tasks efficiently.
5. He always dawdles at the coffee shop, chatting instead of getting to work.
6. She tends to dawdle in the morning, making us late for school.
7. If you dawdle too long, you might miss your chance to sign up for the event.
8. We can't afford to dawdle; the deadline for the project is fast approaching.
9. He would often dawdle at the park, enjoying the scenery instead of heading home.
10. Stop dawdling and help me finish this task before dinner!
11. He tends to dawdle on his way to work, making him late almost every day.
12. Instead of finishing her homework, she would often dawdle by doodling in her notebook.
13. The kids started to dawdle in the park, completely losing track of time.
14. If you continue to dawdle, we may miss the beginning of the movie.
15. I wish he wouldn't dawdle so much; we have a tight schedule to keep.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/dawdle>