

DAYBREAK

Meaning: Daybreak is the time in the morning when light first appears in the sky, marking the beginning of dawn.

1. The sky began to lighten at daybreak, painting the horizon in hues of pink and gold.
2. She loved the peaceful moments that came with daybreak, when the world was still waking up.
3. As daybreak approached, the chirping of birds filled the air with a symphony of sound.
4. They set out on their hike just before daybreak to enjoy the beauty of nature at its finest.
5. With daybreak came a renewed sense of hope and the promise of a fresh start.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/daybreak>