

DEACON

Meaning: A deacon is an ordained member of the clergy in certain Christian denominations who assists in church services and supports the ministry.

1. The deacon delivered a heartfelt message during the Sunday service.
2. After years of service, he was finally ordained as a deacon in the church.
3. She admired the way the deacon reached out to the community in times of need.
4. During the meeting, the deacon shared his vision for the outreach program.
5. The congregation elected him as the new deacon, recognizing his dedication and leadership.
6. The deacon prepared the church for the Sunday service with great care.
7. In many congregations, the deacon plays a vital role in supporting the pastor and ministering to the community.
8. After years of service, he was ordained as a deacon, marking a significant milestone in his faith journey.
9. The deacon organized a charity event to raise funds for local families in need.
10. During the meeting, the deacon shared his insights on how to enhance community outreach programs.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/deacon>