

DEACONSHIP

Meaning: Deaconship is the office or position of a deacon in a religious organization, typically involving service and support within the community.

1. The young man felt a strong calling to pursue deaconship after years of community service.
2. During the church meeting, they discussed the qualifications necessary for entering deaconship.
3. Her deaconship allowed her to serve the congregation in various charitable activities.
4. He was proud to accept the role of deaconship, knowing it came with significant responsibilities.
5. Many believe that deaconship is a vital step in one's spiritual journey within the church.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/deaconship>