

DEAD

Meaning: Dead: having lost life or vitality; no longer alive.

1. The flowers in the garden lay dead after the harsh winter.
2. He felt a sense of dread when he discovered the dead bird on the sidewalk.
3. The novel's ending left the main character feeling emotionally dead inside.
4. She declared the battery dead after it failed to power the remote.
5. In the eerie silence of the forest, even the chatter of the wildlife seemed dead.
6. The garden was filled with the scent of dead leaves, a reminder of the changing season.
7. After the storm, the once vibrant tree stood bare and dead against the gray sky.
8. She felt a deep sadness as she gazed at the dead flowers, their colors faded and forgotten.
9. The detective discovered a dead body hidden in the abandoned warehouse.
10. His enthusiasm for the project seemed dead as soon as he heard the negative feedback.
11. The once vibrant garden now lay dead under the weight of winter's frost.
12. She felt a dead silence envelop the room after the shocking news was shared.
13. The artist's latest work captured the raw beauty of a dead tree against a sunset backdrop.
14. After days without food, the small creature was found lifeless and dead by the roadside.
15. He couldn't shake the feeling that the old traditions were dead in the modern world.
16. The flowers in the garden are completely dead after the frost.
17. He felt dead inside after hearing the tragic news.
18. The old tree stood dead, its branches bare against the sky.
19. She delivered a deadpan response that left everyone in the room silent.
20. The debate ended in a deadlock, with neither side willing to compromise.
21. The ancient tree stood tall, its branches gnarled and its leaves long dead.
22. After the long winter, the garden was a barren landscape, with everything appearing dead and lifeless.

23. Despite the rumors of his death, he was very much alive, proving everyone wrong.

24. The once vibrant city now felt dead, with empty streets echoing the silence of abandonment.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/dead>