

DEADHEARTED

Meaning: Deadhearted: lacking enthusiasm, emotion, or hope; emotionally indifferent or despondent.

1. His deadhearted response to the news left everyone in the room feeling uneasy.
2. After years of disappointment, she had become deadhearted toward the idea of love.
3. The team played with a deadhearted attitude, showing little enthusiasm for the game.
4. Despite the beauty of the sunset, he remained deadhearted, consumed by his thoughts.
5. Her deadhearted laughter echoed in the empty hall, a stark contrast to the joy that used to fill it.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/deadhearted>