

DEADHOUSE

Meaning: DEADHOUSE: A place, often abandoned or eerie, believed to be associated with death or the resting of spirits.

1. The old abandoned building at the edge of town was rumored to be a deadhouse, where spirits lingered.
2. Local legends described the deadhouse as a place where the forgotten were laid to rest, shrouded in mystery.
3. During the ghost tour, the guide pointed out the deadhouse, claiming it was haunted by its former residents.
4. The artist found inspiration in the eerie atmosphere of the deadhouse, painting scenes of its decaying beauty.
5. Despite its grim name, the deadhouse was once a vibrant home filled with laughter and love before its decline.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/deadhouse>