

DEAFEN

Meaning: To deafen means to make someone unable to hear or to overwhelm with loud noise.

1. The sudden roar of the crowd began to deafen him as the concert reached its peak.
2. As the fireworks exploded in the night sky, their brilliant sounds seemed to deafen everyone nearby.
3. He wore noise-canceling headphones to avoid the sounds that would otherwise deafen him in the busy café.
4. The heavy machinery at the construction site was loud enough to deafen even those who wore ear protection.
5. Her laughter was so contagious that it could almost deafen the conversations around her.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/deafen>