

DEATHFULNESS

Meaning: Deathfulness refers to the quality or state of being associated with death or mortality, often evoking a sense of inevitability or desolation.

1. His poetry often explores themes of deathfulness, reflecting on the inevitability of mortality.
2. The deathfulness of the landscape after the wildfire left an eerie silence in the air.
3. She spoke of the deathfulness that permeated the abandoned town, haunted by memories of its past.
4. In his novel, the protagonist grapples with the deathfulness that surrounds him, questioning the meaning of life.
5. The artist's latest exhibition captures the deathfulness of urban decay, evoking a sense of loss and nostalgia.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/deathfulness>