

DEATHLY

Meaning: Deathly: resembling or suggesting death; extremely quiet or still, often evoking a sense of dread or seriousness.

1. The silence in the abandoned house was deathly, as if the walls themselves held their breath.
2. She gave him a deathly glare that silenced the entire room.
3. The fog rolled in so thick that it created a deathly atmosphere, shrouding everything in mystery.
4. His deathly pallor was a clear sign that he had been unwell for some time.
5. The story ended with a deathly hush, leaving readers in suspense about the fate of the characters.
6. The silence in the room was deathly, as everyone awaited the verdict.
7. She gave him a deathly glare, warning him to tread carefully.
8. The deathly chill of the winter air sent shivers down his spine.
9. His deathly pale complexion suggested he had been ill for some time.
10. The eerie stillness of the forest had a deathly quality that made her uneasy.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/deathly>