

DEBARB

Meaning: Debarb: to remove or trim the sharp, spiny, or protruding parts from something, especially in preparation for cooking.

1. The chef decided to debarb the fish to enhance its presentation.
2. Before cooking the chicken, it's essential to debarb the skin for a smoother texture.
3. The fisherman carefully debarbed the hooks to ensure he could release the catch unharmed.
4. In her art project, she chose to debarb the edges of the paper to give it a softer look.
5. To create a safer environment, the gardener recommended debarbing the rose bushes.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/debarb>