

DEBARK

Meaning: Debark: to remove passengers from a vehicle or to strip the bark from a tree or log.

1. The crew worked quickly to debark the passengers as the ship arrived at the dock.
2. Before we can use the lumber, we need to debark the logs to remove the outer layer of bark.
3. As the plane landed, the flight attendants instructed the passengers to remain seated until it was safe to debark.
4. The park ranger explained how to properly debark a tree without harming it.
5. After the long journey, the travelers were eager to debark and explore the new city.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/debark>