

DEBARKATION

Meaning: Debarkation is the act of disembarking or unloading passengers and cargo from a vehicle, such as a ship or aircraft.

1. The debarkation of passengers from the cruise ship was orderly and efficient.
2. During the debarkation process, travelers were guided to designated areas to retrieve their luggage.
3. The airline staff carefully monitored the debarkation to ensure that everyone disembarked safely.
4. After the long journey, the crew announced the debarkation procedures over the intercom.
5. Debarkation at the foreign port was delayed due to unexpected weather conditions.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/debarkation>