

DEBATINGLY

Meaning: In a manner characterized by deliberation or consideration, often involving discussion or argument.

1. She looked at him debatingly, unsure of how to respond to his unexpected question.
2. The committee sat debatingly around the table, weighing the merits of each proposal.
3. He spoke debatingly, trying to gauge the reactions of his audience before making his final point.
4. With a debatingly raised eyebrow, she challenged his assumptions about the project.
5. They exchanged debatingly glances, each considering whether to voice their differing opinions.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/debatingly>