

DEBELLATION

Meaning: Debellation refers to the act of defeating or subduing an enemy or opposing force, often through military action or negotiation.

1. The general's strategy led to the rapid debellation of the enemy forces.
2. Through diplomacy and negotiation, they sought a peaceful debellation rather than conflict.
3. The debellation of the rebellion was celebrated with a grand parade in the capital.
4. Historians often debate the effectiveness of various methods of debellation used throughout history.
5. In the face of overwhelming odds, the city's fortifications enabled a successful debellation of the siege.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/debellation>