

DEBONAIR

Meaning: Debonair: suave, charming, and confident in manner, often associated with elegance and sophistication.

1. He walked into the room with a debonair charm that instantly captivated everyone.
2. The debonair gentleman offered his arm to the lady, guiding her gracefully across the dance floor.
3. With his debonair style and confidence, he effortlessly stole the spotlight at the gala.
4. She admired his debonair demeanor, which seemed to blend sophistication with a relaxed ease.
5. In the world of fashion, his debonair looks set new trends that others eagerly followed.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/debonair>