

DEBULLITION

Meaning: Debullition refers to the process of boiling or the vigorous bubbling that occurs when a liquid reaches its boiling point.

1. The debullition of the water marked the beginning of the cooking process.
2. As the temperature rose, the debullition created a vigorous bubbling in the pot.
3. Scientists observed the debullition closely, noting the changes in pressure and temperature.
4. The chef was pleased with the debullition, as it indicated that the ingredients were properly blending.
5. In the laboratory, the debullition of the solution was crucial for the experiment's success.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/debullition>