

DEBURSE

Meaning: Deburse: to disburse or release funds from a budget or account for a specific purpose.

1. The accountant was tasked with the duty to deburse the funds for the project.
2. It is essential to deburse the allocated budget in a timely manner to avoid delays.
3. Before we can proceed with the next phase, we need to deburse the remaining capital.
4. The company decided to deburse a portion of its profits to reinvest in new technology.
5. She meticulously tracked every transaction to ensure that they would deburse accurately.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/deburse>