

DECAHEDRAL

Meaning: Decahedral refers to a three-dimensional geometric shape with ten faces.

1. The architect designed a stunning decahedral pavilion that became the centerpiece of the park.
2. In geometry class, we learned about the properties of a decahedral shape and its significance in three-dimensional space.
3. The artist's sculpture featured a decahedral form, reflecting light in captivating ways.
4. During the math competition, contestants were challenged to calculate the volume of a decahedral prism.
5. She marveled at the decahedral crystals that sparkled on the jewelry display, each one unique in its geometry.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/decahedral>