

DECANTER

Meaning: A decanter is a vessel, typically made of glass or crystal, used for holding and serving wine or other liquids, often designed to allow the contents to aerate and enhance their flavor.

1. The elegant crystal decanter added a touch of sophistication to the dinner table.
2. After a long day, she poured her favorite wine into the decanter to let it breathe.
3. He admired the intricate design of the antique decanter that had been passed down through generations.
4. As the guests arrived, she carefully filled each glass from the decanter, ensuring everyone had a drink.
5. The sommelier recommended using a decanter to enhance the flavor of the full-bodied red wine.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/decanter>