

DECARBONIZATION

Meaning: Decarbonization is the process of reducing carbon dioxide emissions, particularly in energy production and consumption, to mitigate climate change.

1. Decarbonization is essential for combating climate change and reducing greenhouse gas emissions.
2. Many countries are implementing policies aimed at the decarbonization of their energy sectors.
3. Investing in renewable energy sources is a crucial step toward achieving global decarbonization goals.
4. The decarbonization of transportation will require significant advances in electric vehicle technology.
5. Public awareness and engagement are vital components in the decarbonization efforts of urban areas.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/decarbonization>