

DECARBONIZE

Meaning: Decarbonize: to reduce or eliminate carbon dioxide emissions from a process, system, or operation, particularly in the context of combating climate change.

1. Industries are under increasing pressure to decarbonize their operations in response to climate change.
2. Governments around the world are implementing policies to encourage companies to decarbonize their supply chains.
3. To decarbonize the transportation sector, electric vehicles are being promoted as a viable alternative.
4. Many experts agree that innovative technologies will play a crucial role in helping us decarbonize the economy.
5. The goal of the initiative is to decarbonize urban areas by enhancing public transportation and promoting green spaces.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/decarbonize>