

DECEIVABLE

Meaning: Deceivable: capable of being misled or tricked due to gullibility or naivety.

1. The politician's charm made him seem deceivable to many voters.
2. In a world filled with misinformation, even the most intelligent individuals can be deceivable.
3. She realized that her trust in him had made her deceivable to his manipulations.
4. Children are often more deceivable than adults, easily falling for simple tricks.
5. His deceptive smile suggested a nature that was far from deceivable to those who knew him well.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/deceivable>