

DECEIVABLENESS

Meaning: Deceivableness refers to the quality of being capable of misleading or causing deception.

1. The deceivableness of the advertisement left many consumers feeling misled.
2. In a world filled with digital manipulation, the deceivableness of images has reached new heights.
3. Her charm and wit masked a deceivableness that few were able to see through.
4. The novel explores the theme of deceivableness in relationships and the consequences that follow.
5. Trusting someone without questioning their deceivableness can lead to heartache.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/deceivableness>