

DECEIVER

Meaning: A deceiver is a person who intentionally misleads or tricks others, often for personal gain.

1. The charming salesman turned out to be a skilled deceiver, manipulating his customers for profit.
2. Despite his friendly demeanor, many soon realized he was a deceiver, always hiding his true intentions.
3. In the world of politics, a deceiver can sway public opinion with carefully crafted lies.
4. She learned the hard way that trusting a deceiver can lead to immense heartache and betrayal.
5. His reputation as a deceiver followed him, casting doubt on every promise he made.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/deceiver>