

DECEPTIBLE

Meaning: Deceptible: capable of being deceived or misled; easily fooled or tricked.

1. The magician's tricks were so skillfully executed that even the most perceptive individuals found them deceptible.
2. In a world filled with hidden agendas, it is crucial to recognize which messages are deceptible at first glance.
3. Her charming demeanor masked a deceptible nature that often led others to underestimate her cunning.
4. The advertisement was filled with deceptible claims that left consumers questioning the product's true value.
5. Despite his deceptible appearance, she quickly learned that he was not to be trusted.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/deceptible>