

DECEPTION

Meaning: Deception is the act of misleading or tricking someone, often resulting in a loss of trust or a sense of wonder.

1. Deception can often lead to a breakdown of trust in relationships.
2. The magician's performance was filled with layers of deception that amazed the audience.
3. In her novel, the author explores themes of betrayal and deception among friends.
4. He realized too late that his own deception had consequences he could never have anticipated.
5. The investigation revealed a web of deception that complicated the case further.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/deception>